Below the header is a tab labeled 'untitled_page' with a close button (X) and a plus sign (+). The main content area has a yellow background and contains the text 'FIELD TRIP TIME!' followed by a paragraph: 'you can break early for lunch or wander on over to the durst booth and you can learn how i create content'. At the bottom of the content area are three red pixelated hearts. The browser's footer bar includes a back arrow, a blue bar with three vertical dots, and a forward arrow.
